The Court will not hold a pre-trial conference for this case, but the parties must be present for the docket call to take place at 9:00 am on March 3, 2020 in Courtroom 1-1 of the Charles R. Jonas Federal Building, 401 W. Trade Street, Charlotte, NC. For voir dire, each party will get ten minutes to question the first set of jurors. For each subsequent round of jury selection, parties will get one additional minute for each empty seat. Parties will have three peremptory challenges per side. Jurors must be challenged at the first opportunity. The parties must be prepared to commence trial after jury selection.

The parties are ordered to submit their jointly-prepared pretrial submissions by February 21, 2020. These documents should be submitted to Chambers electronically utilizing the CyberClerk feature on CM/ECF. The Case Management Order addresses the requirements for these submissions. Any motions in limine must be filed by February 21, 2020 with responses due on February 26, 2020. The Court will address any outstanding motions or pretrial issues on the first day of trial before the jury arrives. Witnesses for trial should be subpoenaed by February 21, 2020. The parties must give CD-ROMs or USBs containing pertinent files in JPEG or PDF format for documents and images to the Clerk of Court. The files should be named according to the corresponding exhibit number assigned to the exhibit in the proposed pretrial order.

The Court anticipates that this trial will take one day. The Court will impose a chess clock consistent with this estimate. Parties should prepare to have a 6 hour chess clock, with each side having 3 hours. Time will run during opening, closing, direct examination, and cross examination, but will not run during jury selection, objections, or sidebars. For closing argument, parties are limited to 15 minutes. It will be the responsibility of Parties to budget their chess clock time to ensure time for closing arguments.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Continue, (Doc. No. 182), is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part as stated in this Order.

Signed: February 3, 2020

Frank D. Whitney
Chief United States District Judge
